A COLORED INVENTOR.

(From the Witchita Globe.)

James D. Reed a nineteen year old colored boy living at Valley Falls, Kan., has invented a corn-planter, a mowing machine, a cultivator and a road scraper. The road scraper is intended to be worked, including the driving of the team, by one man. The corn-planter is intended to plant two rows at a time, without any previous lining or checking, leaving the hills in orderly checks. Thus far these implements are still in model.

FAUQUIER WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS.

Quite a happy surprise occurred in the dining room of the Fauquier White Sulphur Springs, on Sept. 5, occasioned by the presentation of a fine gun by the waiters to Wm. T. Naylor, Esq., the popular and much esteemed head-waiter of the above named springs. The presentation was made by Mr. Richard Monroe in a neat little speech which was happily responded to by the recipient. The gun is a double barreled, breech loader, of exquisite workmanship and accurate in shot. Mr. Naylor, who has been training under the well known marksman, Mr. Ed. Harris, has by his proficiency in shooting on the wing given proof as to the identity of his trainer.

The Palm Leaf Organ Club of Ebenezer Church, gave an excursion to Fort Washington, which was a delightful affair.

The young ladies of Mt. Jezreel Sunday School gave a grand concert last Monday and Tuesday nights with great success.

Mr. Charles Butler, the late groom, left for New York Tuesday night, where he will remain all the winter.

Mr. James Dodson has returned home from Philadelphia, where he has been for 15 months.

Miss Hannah, the only child of James N. and Mary J. Cephas, died Tuesday morning, Sept. 6, at half past seven o'clock. The funeral took place from Israel C. M. E. Church last Thursday, and was well attended.

OAKLAND, MARYLAND.

Sept. 6, 1887.

Mr. R. F. Williams, head-waiter at the Oakland Hotel, Md., will leave here for home next Saturday afternoon. The season has been very successful.

The Young Men's Christian Association of Oakland, had a grand closing on last Sunday night. A very large crowd was present and enjoyed the meeting very much. Revs. William Barton of Washington, and Morton, of St. Luke, delivered interesting addresses. Mr. John Fletcher also spoke and thanked his hearers for their presence during the summer and hoped to meet them again in Oakland. After which there was general hand-shaking and a hearty goodbye.

PERSONALS.

Mrs. E. V. C. Williams and her sister, Miss Ida R. Chase, will arrive in the city from Abbeville, S. C., on or about December 1st.

Mrs. J. E. Morgan, who spent some time at Asbury Park, N. J., and other popular watering places, has returned to the city greatly refreshed.

MR. LAWSON'S APPOINTMENT.

Mr. John H. Lawson, of this city, who graduated from the College and Law departments of Howard University, has accepted the appointment of Professor of Latin and French in the Louisville, Ky., University. Mr. Lawson was recently appointed in the City Post Office, after having successfully passed a civil service examination. He was also connected with the BEE and rendered some valuable service. He is a young man of ability, who bids fair to be a success in life. As a teacher in the public schools of this city, prior to his appointment in the City Post Office, he was a success.

The appointment of Mr. Lawson as Professor in the Louisville, College is due to Prof. Bishop Johnson of Wayland Seminary, who uses every effort to push young men to eminence and fame. He, himself, is the youngest minister in the Baptist profession, and one of the most learned. The President of the Louisville College is Prof. W. J. Simmons, author of a new book entitled, "Men of Mark," also a friend of the young men. Mr. Lawson left for his new field of labor Tuesday afternoon. He has the best wishes of his numerous friends and the BEE for long life, success and prosperity.

OBITUARY.

Master Robert Johnson, the beloved son of Mrs. Emma Johnson, was born in this city July 12, '79 and departed this life Aug. 30, '87, at 9 a. m., at Charles Co., Md., after a brief illness. He was a bright intelligent boy, and seemed destined to be a great man, but the reaper death cut him down, and to-day he is no more among the living but is mingling his voice with the redeemed of the Lord, in humble praise to the lamb of God, who taketh away the sins of the world. His funeral took place Saturday, Sept. 4, from his mother's residence, 1614 9th st., was attended by many friends and admirers. Rev. Bishop Johnson, officiated. Requiescat in pace.

MUSICAL AND DRAMATIC.

Miss Louise A. Smith is writing a new play.

Mr. Joseph Hanneo has an idea of supporting a good dramatic troupe.

Mr. W. R. Davis, the dramatist, is an inventor of no little ability. As a reader Mrs. John R. Lynch is one of the most accomplished.

The complimentary testimonial to Master Wm. Cook by the citizens of this city, at the Congregational Church Sept. 14, will be one of the grandest in musical and dramatic circles.

This fall and winter will be the liveliest seasons for musical and literary entertainments.

Mr. J. A. Arneaux, will leave for Paris this month.

Lient. H. L. Smith, of New York, is at the head of a great musical and dramatic combination.

Hurlie Bavardo is being criticised for advertising that which he does not play.

Misses Mary Nalle and Annie R. Sprague, two very enterprising young ladies, have the Cook testimonial in charge. They should receive the liberal support of the citizens.

SOCIETY NOTES.

Dr. C. B. Purvis will give weekly soirees this winter.

The Monday night club will, it is said, change its program from feasting to the discussion of solid literature.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Douglass will probably hold a public reception in a few weeks.

Capt. O. S. B. Wall, has gone to Ohio.

Miss Alice Strange, one of the most gifted pianists, will be married shortly to a distinguished lawyer.

Mr. W. H. Black, will give a series of card parties this winter.
